

March 14th, 2025

To Our Customers,

Effective Monday, April 14th, 2025, USG will increase prices on the following products:

- All Commercial, Specialty and Retail Suspension Systems in the US will increase up to 15% (including drywall suspension systems).
- All Metal USG Ceilings Plus Design Solutions and USG Specialty products in the US will increase up to 20%.
- True Wood Grilles in the US will increase by 15%.

A new price list will be issued in alignment with the effective date above. USG Ceilings Plus Custom products are quoted by project and will be impacted by this increase. Your USG representative will contact you to discuss pricing in your market.

As always, we appreciate your business and look forward to our continued partnership.
Sincerely,
